THE ENGLISH ELECTIONS.

The Result of the Contest Between Gladstone and Disraeli.

London, February 10.-Twenty-seven members of the new parliament were chosen yesterday, making the total elected 5%-283 conservatives, and 253 liberals and homeconservatives, and 253 liberals and home-rulers. Conservatives have been returned for eighty scats occupied by liberals in parlia-ment, and liberals have replaced twenty-eight conservatives. The number of members returned from Ireland up to this morning is fifty-five, thirty-one home-rulers, sixteen conservatives and eight liberals. It is an-nounced that a reconciliation has been ef-fected between Disraell and the marquis of Salisbury and the earl of Carnavan, and that the marquis and earl have consented to assist

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

One Man Killed and Another Loses hi Mind-The Besuit of a Deer Hunt.

FRANCISVILLE, IND., February 10 .- A east of this place on Sunday last, whereby one man lost his life and another may lose his mind. The facts are, as near as can be gathered, that four persons had seen the track of a deer, and, arming themselves with double-barreled shotguns, on the morning of the day reportions started out. Their names were mentioned, started out. Their names were Thomas Mills, B. F. Lincoln, L. Hurley, and a Thomas Mills, B. F. Lincoln, L. Hurley, and a fearman whose name has not yet been learned. After proceeding a short distance, Hurley returned to the house, and was to watch the south side. He was to come to them if they called. The other three went on. They soon came upon a deer, and Lincoln was to fire, but his gun snapped; then Mills said: "Kneel down—let me give him a shot." said: "Kneel down—let me give him a shot." He knelt down, and Mills fired one barrel, but He knelt down, and Mills fired one barrel, but falled to bring down the deer, and it started in a circle that brought Lincoln directly in line, and just as Mills palled trigger, Lincoln raised up just high enough to get the contents of one barrel of six buckshot in the head, the charge entering at the left side and back of the car and tearing the whole frost of the face in a dreadful manner. Lincoln lived only about ten minutes. He was a single man, aged about twenty-one years. Mills is nearly crazy, and has been watched ever since the catastrophe. He has tried to end his life once or twice already. The whole thing was secidental. Did not learn the particulars of the inquest.

e ork is about closed up in town. The ladies have been visiting the suburban saloons with pretty good success; they do not, however, feel much confidence in the promises made them, and will continue their work till they see fruits meet for repentance. Since the traffic has been subdued in town, it is feared the very dry may seek these more distant resorts, and a regular train of conveyances has been provided, that they may be attended to in the same spirit as the others, some of them very obstinate. The ladies have found some cases of sad destitution resulting from the traffic which were generously attended to. A physicians' pledge, binding them to prescribe liquor in cases only where there is a real medical necessity, has been signed by nearly all the doctors. The mass meetings continue.

RIPLEY, OHIO.

CINCINNATI, February 9.—A Gazette special from Ripler says the woman's temperance movement is at fever heat in that town, and thist sixteen out of twenty-three saloon-keepers havesigned the pledge and abandoned the business. It is taking a profound religious turn, and the men hold prayer-meetings while the women visit the saloons. The meetings are crowded, and a deep religious interest is manifested. Preparations are beginning in Dayton, and Blo Lewis is here now, and is expected to make an effort to start the movement here. A Defaulter Attempts Suicide.

RICHMOND, VA., February 9.—W. D. Coleman, clerk of the board of public works, attempted suicide this evening by cutting his throat. It appears that a heavy defaleation has been discovered in the office of the commissioner of sinking fund, which was traced to Coleman, and a warrant issued for his arrest. Upon the officer going to Coleman's room to execute the warrant, he (Coleman) attempted his life, as above stated, in the presence of the officers. Coleman was formerly editor of the Richmond Enquirer, and was held in high esteem. His life is not considered in danger.

army, including all such claims now pending and undetermined in any department of the government, shall be presented before the first of November, 1874, to the southern claims commissioners, who shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine them. All jurisdiction to hear and determine them. All ciaims not presented before that day are to be barred. The transfer of claims from the quartermaster's department is to be considered as a presentation of claims. This section gave rise to a long discussion, and many amendments were offered to it. The most important amendments that were adopted were one offered by Mr. Young extending the time from. November, 1875, and one, opposed by Mr. E. R. Hoar, for the appointment of two additional commissioners. An amendment offered by Mr. Speer the appointment of two additional commis-sioners. An amendment offered by Mr. Speer was also adopted after a long struggle, trans-ferring to commissions all the evidence now on file with the quartermaster-general and ommissary-general.

Mr. Beck moved to substitute a section to Mr. Beck moved to substitute a section to transfer all these claims to the court of claims for adjudication, which was rejected.

Mr. Cobb [Kansas] moved as additional section requiring the secretary of war, when selecting railroad lines for the transportation of supplies, and when there are competing lines, to consider the money paid to those Pacific railroads and their branches, from which the government retains the amount charged for its business, which is so much money saved to the treasury. which was adopted:
WHEREAS, The First national bank of the ent, and is now in the hands of a receiver, in consequence, as is alleged, of lending to or placing in the control of a single firm the whole of its capital stock, as well as a large part of the money of its depositors, which is palpable violation of the national banking act; and whereas, the circumstances attending the fallure of said bank, and the character of its mapagement, under which so gross a violation of law could have taken place demand an investigation to the end that remedies may be applied to guard against like frauds in future, therefore be it

Resolved, That the committee on banking and currency be instructed to examine into
